The screenshot shows a modal window titled 'Edit Text Enabled Device' with a close button (X) in the top right corner. The form contains the following fields:

- '10-Digit Number *': A text input field containing '(818) 867-5309'. A red dashed box surrounds the field, and a red arrow labeled '1' points to it.
- 'Country': A dropdown menu with 'United States' selected.
- 'Provider *': A dropdown menu with 'T-Mobile' selected. A red dashed box surrounds the field, and a red arrow labeled '2' points to it.

Below the form, there is a text instruction: 'Upon saving the number you will be prompted to enter an activation code that will be sent to your device.' At the bottom of the modal, there are two buttons: 'Save' and 'Cancel'. A red dashed box surrounds the 'Save' button, and a red arrow labeled '3' points to it.
